THE OCONEE RURAL CARRIERS

Will Meet in Annual Session at the Court House on May 30th.

The annual meeting of the R. F. D. Carriers' Association of Oconee County will be held at the Court House in Walhalla on Monday, May 30th, 1921.

The meeting will be called to order at 10 o'clock a. m.

All carriers are earnestly urged to attend, as there is business of vital importance to every carrier to come before the meeting. The wives of the carriers are cordially invited to be present at the meeting, as well as all sub-carriers who are willing to join with us in furthering the cause and bettering the conditions of the carriers.

An interesting program will be carried out. Special attraction in the afternoon.

Let's make Oconee 100 per cent strong! W. M. Lemmons, President.

Norris-Watt Wedding.

(Twiggs County, Ga., Citizen, Jeffersonville, Ga., April 29.)

On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Norris, occurred the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Norris and William Carl Watt, the impressive ceremony being performed by Rev. B. D. Nicholson, pastor of the First Baptist church. The decorations in the reception hall and the front parlor were especially lovely, being fashioned in white and green. The bride was given in marriage by her father, R. B. Norris, and was attended by her young sister, Miss Mary Reid Norris, who was girlishly beautiful in white organdies, and carried an arm bouquet of sunset roses.

The bride, an attractive and beautiful young woman of the brunette type, wore a handsome suit of blue with gray accessories, and her carriage was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The wedding music was furnished by Mrs. J. G. Rockmore at the piano and Mrs. C. L. Nease, who sang "Bid Me to Love," by B. Barnard.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Norris entertained the bridal party and a few friends at an informal reception.

The out-of-town guests were Cliff Watt, Anderson, S. C.; Mrs. Kate

Cudworth, Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Miers, Macon, Ga.; Mendeth Miers, Macon; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Norris, Jr., Charlotte, N. C.; Miss G. R. VanDiere, Walhalla, S. C.; and Miss Ruth Gallemore, of Macon.

There are many friends of the bride, who is well and pleasantly known in Walhalla, who will join with The Courier in extending to her and the fortunate groom sincere good wishes for a long life of happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Norris, parents of the bride, are well known here, Mrs. Norris being a native of Walhalla, a daughter of the late Col. H. S. and Mrs. Rose VanDiere. Mr. Norris was for a number of years engaged in railway work here.

Notes from Ebenezer Section.

Ebenezer, May 16.—Special: We will have preaching at this place on the first Sunday in each month at 11 o'clock. Rev. R. F. Jones, of Salem, is the pastor.

We have Sunday school every Sunday morning, and it is hoped that all the children of the community will attend regularly. Let the parents make an extra effort to have the little ones ready in ample time to attend punctually.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Owens and son Walter visited relatives in the Shiloh section recently.

J. R. Peay lost two milk cows recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bearden, of Central, visited relatives here during the recent past.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peay, on May 14th, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bearden and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Barton visited relatives near Sandy Springs a short time ago.

Miss Maude Cheek, of near Walhalla, spent some time last week with her sister, Mrs. Beulah Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Leroy, of Newry, visited relatives in this community Saturday and Sunday.

Children Encouraged to Save.

Washington, May 16.—Endorsement of the nation-wide plan to instruct children in sound business principles by incorporating the study of thrift and savings into the public school curriculum was voted at the National Congress of the Mothers and Parent-Teacher Association recently in session here. The association further recommended that preparation for teaching the thrift principles of efficiency, self-control and self-reliance, wise spending and safe investment be given teachers in normal schools and teachers' institutes, and that the school thrift bank idea be encouraged.

Card of Thanks.

Editor Keowee Courier:

Will you please allow us space in your paper to offer our thanks and appreciation of the much-needed help the good people of Wolf Stake and surrounding community gave us after our home was burned down on Monday, May 2d? I want to say that the people have surely been good to us in the way of furnishing work, clothing, furniture, canned fruits, groceries, kitchen utensils, and money in cash.

Our home was burned May 2d and the people rebuilt our home and we moved in on May 10th. My family and I are not able to express in words our thanks and appreciation for all that has been done for us, but we believe and trust that the Lord will repay and bless many fold, as is His will to do, all that had in any way anything to do in helping us, and our prayer is that we may so live and act as to give nobody any room to regret anything they have done for us. We appreciate very much all that has been done for us, but we appreciate our friends much more. What a blessing it is to live in a community and county like ours! Our prayer is that God's richest blessings may rest upon all. H. A. Wood (adv.) and Family.

Let New Buds Push Forth.

Leaves fall because their hold on the stem is loosened by the new bud underneath pushing forward. So should it be with class plans. New ideas, new enthusiasms, new growth should ever be pushing the worn and outgrown off the calendar to make room for something fresh and attractive. Don't get set; like the leaves, let go! —Girl's Companion.

It Pays to Paint.

In a recent issue of The Progressive Farmer we find where a farmer writes something like this:

"MISTAKES I HAVE MADE"

"In the year 1919 I built a new house on my 40 acres of land. I did not build the verandas or PAINT the house because of the prices of paint and lumber, thinking it would be better to wait until prices came down, then do the work. But now my WINDOWS and DOORS are nearly ruined by the weather, and the house is badly damaged; so it would have PAID me to have built the verandas and PAINTED the house in spite of high prices."

FRIEND, you will make the same MISTAKE if you have property that needs Painting and don't Paint it. We carry good assortments of Sherwin-Williams Paints and Peaslee-Gaulberts. There's none better than the lines we carry.

You can paint your houses, barns, etc., now and pay us for the paint next October 1st.
